Pass Overview

This pass allows the passholder and any accompanying passengers in a private vehicle use of the recreation facilities at day use fee sites administered by the U.S. Forest Service within the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area.

The pass is valid until midnight of the date listed on the pass, and only for the date and vehicle specified for that pass.

This pass is non-transferable, non-refundable, is not replaceable if lost or stolen, and is void if altered or reproduced.

Additional Pass Details

If you purchased your pass on site, your vehicle's license plate will be used for verification.

If you printed this pass, fold on the dotted line and display it on your vehicle dashboard with the QR code clearly visible.

A separate permit is required to hike Dog Mountain on Saturdays and Sundays in April and June.

Where does the money go? Ninety-five percent of proceeds from recreation fees go right back in to maintaining and improving the facilities and trails provided at fee sites.
